No written complaints. Public comments- Kirk said he didn't believe the school road is properly marked for a one way.

The Financials of deposits were looked over and the bills. Kyle Kittley made the motion to approve the bills and Marshall Bradford seconded. All in favor.

Election planning. The members who's term will be up are Mayor Delle Watkins, Marshall Bradford, and Kimberly Eaton.

PUBLIC WORKS REPORT- Hugh gave his report. He got the Air Compressor and shelves for the new shop. Had the TCEQ Inspection, Ran the sewer behind Bob Clarks, Brian will test on Monday, Jan. 8th. Need to take the mower to Abilene to get it service and also need to take the Side by Side to get it serviced also.

FIRE DEPT. REPORT- Hugh gave the Fire Dept report. They had 2 EMS calls, 1 wreck west of Rule on Hwy 380. Had the pictures with Santa and are planning on doing a community feed with AMA TechTel soon. They just need to pick a day that will be good.

MUNICIPAL COURT REPORT- Tye gave his report. We had 12 citations, 3 payment plans. He went to Judge school and he learned we have to submit reports to the Comptroller. There is a computer software called Fundview that he would like to have, other cities use it. It fills out the paperwork and separates the fee amount of money that goes to what area. He will find out more information on this for the next meeting.

CEMETERY REPORT- Jeffrey couldn't be here but he left word that he would have a quote for the pre-emergence chemical by the next meeting.

We are still waiting for the Code enforcement.

Next month Tye will have Law Enforcement here to discuss a possible interlocal agreement with them if we can't get our own law enforcement.

Regular session ended at 6:47 and went into executive session to looked of Bid for garbage pickup from AEL.
