Special notes

Delle Watkins informed city council that Buster (a previous employee of the city) came into city hall today and he would like to attend the water classes that he was going to take as a city employee and that he would like the city to pay for the classes. The council informed Delle Watkins that since Buster was no longer a city employee that he was not eligible to take the class and have the city pay for it. That if he wanted to take the class he may do so on his own and at his own expense. The class is $350. Delle Watkins informed city council that she would pay for the class for Buster since the city was not going to pay for the class.
